

Fall 2006 - EcoLunch

Fridays 12 noon – 403 WI DB - Bring your lunch

- 08 September Mark Belk – Invasion of the body-snatchers: shape and vulnerability in a stream fish assemblage
- 15 September Arley Camargo – Phylogenetic diversification in Leptodactylus fuscus: is genetic data congruent with morphological and advertisement call variation?
- 22 September Larry St.Clair – The influence of grazing and other environmental factors on lichen community structure along an alpine tundra ridge in the Uinta mountains, Utah, USA
- Come 15 minutes early to hear Juan Jose Ortiz discuss: Trophic structure and dynamic of nutrients in Patagonian lacustrine systems: effects of the invasion of salmonids*
- 29 September Riley Nelson – Biotic surveys: Mongolia, French Guiana, and French Polynesia.
- 06 October Steve Peck – Minus solum, quam cum solus esset*: rethinking group theory (* Never less alone than when alone – Cicero)
- 13 October Josh Rasmussen – This poeciliid went to market. This poeciliid stayed home - a look at proximal causes of dispersal
- 20 October Limb Hapairai – Medical entomology in the tropical South Pacific
- 27 October Russ Rader- Cutting-edge concepts and questions in evolutionary ecology: the meaning of all things, past, present and future
- 03 November Brooks Britt – BYU Geology Department – Dinosaurs, death, and osteophagous insects
- 10 November Ashley Egan - Phylogenetics and biogeography of North American Psoraleeae (Leguminosae): a recent, rapid radiation
- 17 November Emily Putnam – Draba, Draba, Draba
- 24 November No EcoLunch – Thanksgiving Break
- 01 December Keith Crandall – The Wonderful World of Crawfish!