

Winter 2006 - EcoLunch

Fridays 12 noon – 363 MARB - Bring your lunch

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 13 January | Riley Nelson - What You Can Only See in Asia: Riley's Latest Field Expedition to Mongolia |
| 20 January | Jen Buhay - The Blind Leading the Blind: Cave Crayfish in the Southern Appalachians |
| 27 January | Jenny Pramuk - How to Get a Faculty Position: Mastering the Job Seminar and the Course Guest Lecture |
| 03 February | Brice Noonan - The History of the World...or at Least Part of It |
| 10 February | Jack Sites - Glimpses of Southern Africa |
| 17 February | Kent Hatch - How Much Meat Do Bears Eat, Really? The Power of Stable Isotopes |
| 24 February | Mike Whiting - The Tree of Life |
| 03 March | Heidi Snell (University of New Mexico) - Galapagos Islands: A Photo Documentary |
| 10 March | Randy Larsen - Eurasia to Western North America: Chukars, Naturalization, and the Evolution of Natural History. |
| 17 March | Stephen Cameron - (Practice Job Seminar) The Insect Mitochondrial Genome: Comparative Genomics, Ordinal Phylogenomics and Species-level systematics |
| 24 March | Jaime Zuñiga - Superfetation: Why Some Livebearing Fishes use a Ford Motors Assembly-Line Mode of Reproduction |
| 31 March | Rob Bogardus - Does the Kind of Water Birds Drink Make a Difference? |
| 07 April | Jerry Johnson - An Update from the National Science Foundation's Regional Grant Conference: How to Get a Piece of the Pie |

14 April

Carissa Jones - How the Gonopodium Got It's Twist: The Evolution of Lateralization in a Fish Insemination Structure